First Firms Given C.I.O. Pay Proposal

Terms Still Secret; No Action Indicated After Opening Talks

PITTSBURG, Oct. 10 (AP)—The first of the nation's steel companies to meet with the C.I.O. United Steelworkers on a new contract mulled over the union's latest wage demands today.

Negotiations opened yesterday between the steelworkers and Republic Steel Corp.—the nation's third largest producer—and with Allegheny Ludlum Steel Corp.

The union meets today with Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp., the fourth largest producer.

Under the present contract, new wage talks were not to start until Nov. 1. But the union asked 1,400 companies across the nation to advance the date.

Some companies refused. Others agreed to reopen contract provisions early, but not as early as requested. Some, in addition to Republic, Allegheny Ludlum and J. & L., will sit down at the bargaining table this week.

The union declines to make public the terms of its demands. But C.I.O. and U.S.W. President Philip Murray said he wants a "substantial" pay hike for his 1,000,000 steelworkers.

Spokesmen for both the union and Allegheny Ludlum said their first meeting was merely exploratory. At the Republic Steel meeting in Cleveland, the conference adjourned as soon as the company heard the union's demands. No date was set for another session.

Crucible, 2 Unions Represented At Parley

The Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co., Local 1212 of the C. I. O. United Steelworkers and Local 3177 of the Clerical Union were represented this afternoon in the meeting at the Roosevelt Hotel in Pittsburgh as wage talks were opened by Crucible and the C. I. O.

R. B. Wisner, labor relations director, represented the Midland Works, Joseph Hibbard, president, represented Local 1212, Charles Kology, president, represented Local 3177, and James Mullen was the representative of the International C. I. O.

Britain Takes Mills Feb. 15

Date Set For Entry Into Steel Industry

LONDON, Oct. 10 (AP)— Britain's government goes into the iron and steel business next Feb. 15.

The Labor government announced today it will take over 92 privately-owned companies from all branches of the giant industry on that date. Steel nationalization has been a major project in the government's program of state socialism.

Cost of the industry, which will be purchased from its private owners, has not been announced.

The take-over, authorized in 1949 in spite of a bitter parliamentary fight by both Conservative and Liberal opponents of the government, was challenged again Sept. 19. Tory Leader Winston Churchill's attempt to overthrow the government on a vote of confidence was defeated by the narrow margin of six votes.

Churchill contended that nationalization of the industry would greatly hamper the country's rearmament program. The government's determination to go ahead with the take-over was interpreted as a concession to the Labor party's left wing, which has been demanding increased socialist activity from the government.

Britain already has nationalized its coal mines, railroads, electricity, gas, airlines, the Bank of England, and much of the country's road transport.

Coach Says He's Sorry

Watts Censured In Board Action

Wade Watts, East Liverpool High School's head football coach, was censured by the Board of Education Monday night for his cuffing of a player at Friday's game at Patterson Field.

The board at the same time forgave Mr. Watts for his mistake, which he acknowledged in a letter to the faculty yesterday and to the public in a letter through The Review today.

In view of his attitude toward the boys and the boys toward him, the board voted unanimously to give him his "second chance".

Coach Watts was not present at the meeting but Superintendent W. G. Fordyce reported what had transpired at the field Friday night and of a conference he and Principal R. W. Betts had with Mr. Watts and others of the coaching staff Monday.

Informed of the board's action, Mr. Watts said he would issue a public statement apologizing to the fans.

The incident, which aroused the ire of the several thousand fans, occurred during the third quarter of the East Liverpool-Toledo Devilbiss game. Robert Bible, senior and a substitute, had been sent into the game and, according to Coach Watts, failed to carry out instructions in one of the plays.

As the boy returned to the bench, Mr. Watts admitted that he "pushed his face with my open hand".

The crowd booed the coach after the incident.

Superintendent Fordyce declared that coaches have been warned repeatedly against striking players and swearing at drills, practice sessions and games. He said he visited Patterson Field on frequent occasions and had made inquiries to determine if there had been any violations of this order, but he said he could find no one who would admit there had been "manhandling" or swearing on the part of coaches.

"I again called each member of the coaching staff into my office

Board Ready To Sue State In Road Fight

Injunctions Will Be Sought If State Acts To Appropriate Land

City Solicitor John McDonald was instructed by the Board of Education Monday night to prepare two injunction suits in the event the State Highway Department attempts to appropriate school land for the East Liverpool-Wellsville super-road:

The board and the state are $33,487.50 "apart" on what the state has offered for the land and what school officials consider adequate for the property and for damages. The West End School and Patterson Field are involved.

"We have made two attempts to negotiate an agreement with the State Highway Department in this matter but they have refused to have anything to do with us," Raymond Buzzard, a member of the board committee on the highway improvement, declared.

"We are not going to be pushed around in this proposal any further".

Mr. Buzzard asserted he was approached recently by two attorneys, supposedly representatives of the State Highway Department. One declared the Board of Education "is going to be sued by the state," according to Mr. Buzzard, and the other asked him for the names and addresses of board members who, in the event of an appropriation action, would be named defendants.

Mr. Buzzard speculated the state appropriation action might come within the next week or 10 days. He said the board would be allowed 10 days in which to file an answer but in the meantime the school equity suits would be filed.

Members suggested two suits be prepared, one in behalf of the board as the owner of the West End School and the other for the board as the trustee for Patterson Field.

W. E Zehnder, right-of-way agent for the State Highway Department at the New Philadelphia Division headquarters, conferred with the board on Sept. 28.

The board discussed with him certain work which is deems necessary and should be included in the contract.

Mr. Zehnder declared that the plans "could not and would not be changed", as the contract had been awarded.

He asserted, however, that additional work could be done by a "work order" of the state, if its engineers so desired.

At this conference it was revealed that the state had offered

5 Injured, One Critically, As 2 Autos Skid

Machine Rams Bank, Second Crashes Into Truck At Mill Creek

Five persons were injured, one critically, Monday noon on Frankfort Springs Road near Mill Creek Church Cemetery when a car skidded into an embankment and a following car hit a truck head-on.

Mrs. Sophie Stoneking, 30, of Akron is in "critical" condition at City Hospital with a fractured skull.

She was a passenger in a car driven by her husband, Herbert Stoneking, who was treated for a lacerated hand. Their year-old child, Kathy Ellen Stoneking, was treated for a lacerated scalp and shock.

Also in City Hospital is Mrs. Pearl Reed of Warren, who received a lacterated nose and a possible fracture of the left ankle. She is "fair".

Her husband, Edgar Reed, who was driving their car, was treated for abrasions of the face and head.

According to Harry C. Stewart of Hookstown, whose ambulance took the injured to the hospital, the cars were traveling down the Mill Creek Hill toward Route 30.

The Reed auto was in the lead, Mr. Stewart said, and swerved into an embankment after skidding on the wet pavement.

The Stoneking car, immediately behind, skidded to the left side of the road and into the front of a truck going uphill.

City Man Injured As Car Hits Guard Rail

A 37-year-old East Liverpool man was injured early today when his auto left outer Dresden Ave. and crashed into a guard rail, police reported.

Floyd Ammon, 450 West Eighth St., was treated at City Hospital for a scalp laceration after the mishap in the 1700 block at 12:32 a. m., officers said.

Mr. Ammon told police his auto was forced off the street by another car. He was taken to the hospital in a police cruiser.

Palestine Woman Shaken In Collision

EAST PALESTINE, Oct. 10 (Special)—Mrs. Katherine Bauman, 48, of the East Palestine-Darlington Road was shaken up but otherwise unhurt when her car was hit from the rear by a truck at 11 a. m. Monday.

The rear of her 1949 sedan was damaged badly.

The truck, driven by W. Floyd Hamilton, 43, of Pittsburgh, glanced off her car and into a parked auto owned by Roy Shettler of Enon Valley, damaging its left front fender, police said.

Fresh Curbs On Building Due Shortly

Capital Speculates Steelworkers' Case May Set Wage Policy

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 (AP)—Senator Flanders (R) of Vermont said today the government may head off the need for price controls and rationing if it moves fast enough on other fronts to combat inflation.

On the other hand, Senator Maybank (D) of South Carolina said in a separate interview he believes controls and higher corporation taxes should come soon, and as close together as possible.

One new set of drastic curbs—aimed at slowing up the pace of private home building—was in immediate prospect. Interested federal agencies were finishing up work on new regulations, and prospects were that they may be issued tonight.

They were reported in advance to contain restrictions not only on government-insured or guaranteed mortgages, but also on privately-written mortgages. They are expected to provide for a 10 per cent down payment by veterans and down payments ranging from 15 to 30 per cent—perhaps as high as 50 per cent on luxury housing—for non-veterans.

Meanwhile, there were signs that another major anti-inflation step might be the development of a wage policy similar to the so-called Little Steel formula which the government employed during World War II.

This time the pattern may be a "Big Steel" formula, since C.I.O. President Philip Murray's steelworkers, some 1,000,000 strong, yesterday launched a campaign for wage boosts throughout the industry.

The Little Steel formula acted generally to hold workers up until VJ-Day to a 15 per cent increase over their wage level of Jan. 15, 1941. It was worked out by the War Labor Board in a case involving smaller steel companies. Thereafter, it became a pattern for all workers. The board breached it only for fringe advances and correction of inequities.

Because of the importance of steel in the economy and the timing of Mr. Murray's wage drive, it appeared likely that any wage settlement he makes with the industry will have a bearing on wage drives in rail and telephone industries starting this week, and other contract negotiations next spring.

The steel wage issue could well wind up in the lap of the new Wage Stabilization Board, which has not yet been named. Cyrus S. Ching, head of the Federal Mediation Service, is regarded as the probable chairman.

The White House is expected to act shortly, following up the weekend selection of Dr. Alan Valentine as head of the Economic Stabilization Administration.

On the question of other anti-inflation moves, Senator Flanders said the government might head off the need for price controls by sharply boosting corporation taxes again and offering special inducements to stimulate the purchase of U.S. Savings Bonds.

Marine At Palestine Is Wounded In Korea

EAST PALESTINE, Oct. 10 (Special)—This city's first casualty in the Korean fighting is Marine Private First Class Carmen Chick, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Chick of West Main St.

He was wounded in action, according to a letter the family received Monday. It was written by a buddy who said Carmen was unable to write and had been evacuated to a hospital in Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. Chick, who have operated a grocery here for many years, are waiting formal notification from the Defense Department.

Private Chick was graduated from East Palestine High School in 1948 and enlisted in the Marine Corps that fall. He spent a seven-day furlough here late in August on the way from his former post at Washington to the West Coast.

SEOUL, Oct. 10—U. S. First Cavalry foot troops ran into fierce resistance today just north of Parallel 38.

The cavalry's advance with tank, artillery and air support was slowed to a crawl against log pillbox positions set up before the war.

This is the line the Communists insisted was for "defense", but which was used as starting blocks for the Red invasion of South Korean June 25.

Twenty thousand other Red Korean forces blunted the Rok drive in the center of the peninsula about five miles north of the border.

While fighting raged all along the battlefront, an Allied transport plane flew a loudspeaker over isolated Red pockets, calling for surrender. It promised fair and humane treatment.

Organized Red Korean troops blocking the armored cavalry drive on the main road from Seoul toward Pyongyang and the South Korean thrusts in the center of the peninsula were showing no signs of giving up.

The Reds held mountain positions flanking the main highway defenses extended 25 miles in depth, an air observer reported.

Foot troopers, with Allied warplanes raining steel and firebombs on the Reds, slugged ahead 2½ miles along the main highway, to the vicinity of Simchon.

Two other columns speared out to the left and right of this force.

One crossed the Yesong River, 10 miles west of Kaesong, smashed three Red counterattacks, and drove ahead on a northwest tangent.

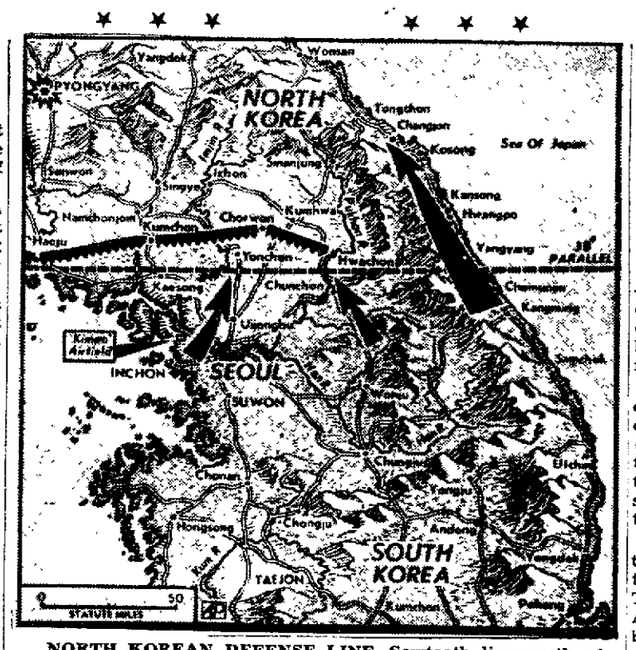

The other wheeled to the vicinity of Panbu, 15 miles northeast of Kaesong. Panbu lies just north of Parallel 38.

General MacArthur's Tuesday war summary said small gains were made against "stubborn enemy resistance supported by small arms, mortar and artillery fire".

British and Australian troops were committed to the advancing Allied force in this sector, but a spokesman said he could not say whether they were inside Red Korea yet.

In the center of the peninsula, General MacArthur's headquarters said, the Reds had their largest known force—at least 20,000 men—spotted along a 30-odd mile front between Hwachon and Yonchon.

This is the area where the Korean Sixth and Eighth Divisions are stabbing into Korea.

NORTH KOREAN DEFENSE LINE. Sawtooth line north of 38th Parallel locates area where Allied pilots reported North Koreans are dug in for defense. The line, a pre-war defense perimeter, runs east from Haeju through Kumchon, Chorwon and on to Hwachon. On east coast Koreans captured Wonsan.

BULLETIN
WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 (AP)—President Truman will meet with General Douglas MacArthur in the Pacific this coming week end.

WONSAN, Korea, Oct. 10 (AP)—South Korean troops today occupied Wonsan, the first major city in North Korea taken over by United Nations liberation forces.

At nightfall, however, the big east coast industrial city was not quite secure. The Reds still occupied high ground encircling the southwest and western sectors. They were pouring a steady stream of fire into South Korean troops.

But other North Koreans—by the hundreds—were surrendering to the advancing South Korean Third and Capital Divisions. About 60 surrendered in a factory building.

The Communist prisoners said many others were ready to throw up their hands as soon as they get the chance.

There were enough who didn't surrender to take a heavy toll of the republic's forces, mainly from small arms and machine gun fire and some mortar and artillery bursts.

The South Koreans answered in kind.

Observers generally were confident that what remains of this much-bombed city of 150,000 would be completely in South Korean hands by morning.

The Red defense of Wonsan, althought stubborn and bitter, was much weaker than had been expected.

As the South Korean forces passed each series of ridges east of the city, veterans of the long march up the east coast wondered why the North Koreans had not defended the high ground approaches.

The South Korean army would have been miles short of Wonsan tonight had the Reds been determined to put up a full-scale resistance before the city.

Wonsan is about 105 miles north of Parallel 38 and 95 miles almost due east of the Communist capital, Pyongyang.

It was the center of oil refining in Korea before repeated B-29 strikes smashed its industrial facilities. The port has one of the best natural harbors in the country. A peninsula jutting northward on Wonsan's east side was once a Japanese naval air station.

Snipers and some heavier gun teams remained to be cleaned out before the city is secure. Officers thought the mop-up would be complete some time Wednesday.

This would permit a start on shaping up the harbor and captured airport for use quickly. The port was reported 50 per cent intact after Allied bombings earlier in the war.

Lodge Protest

Reds Say Field In Siberia Raided

MOSCOW, Oct. 10 (AP)—Russia charged today two American fighter planes strafed and damaged a Soviet airfield near the key Siberian seaport of Vladivostok last Sunday.

A Russian protests note was offered to U. S. Minister-Counsellor Walworth Barbour last night by Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko. The note placed the incident 62 miles north of the Soviet-Korean border.

It demanded "strict punishment" for the "responsible personnel" and American assurances against such incidents in the future.

The note said two F-80 Shooting Star jets machinegunned an airfield in the Sukhaya Rechka area at 4:17 p. m. Sunday. Sukhaya Rechka is across Novik Bay from Vladivostok and about 18 miles southwest of that important Siberian rail and shipping terminus.

"As a result of the firing, damage was inflicted on airdrome equipment," the note declared. It made no mention of casualties.

Barbour declined to accept the note on the grounds the protest was a matter for the United Nations to handle.

Gromyko disagreed, arguing that since the note dealt with the firing by American planes on a Soviet installation, it was the sole concern of the two governments involved.

The note subsequently was sent by the Russians to the U. S. embassy. U. S. Ambassador Alan G. Kirk, who had been in bed with a cold, went there early this morning to inform the State Department of the Soviet communication.

It was published in Moscow papers without editorial comment.

"In connection with these provocative actions of the American Air Force, expressed in a gross violation of the U. S. S. R. state frontier, and in firing on a Soviet airdrome, the Soviet government launches a resolute protest with the government of the United States," the note said.

In refusing to accept the note, Barbour took the same stand as was taken by the United States last September, when Russia protested the downing of a Soviet plane by American aircraft off Korea.

That note never was accepted by the United States, and Russia submitted it to the United Nations for consideration only, not for action. It has remained shelved so far.

Korea has a long common frontier with Manchuria, but borders on the Soviet Union for only about 20 miles along the extreme northeastern tip of northern Korea.

Raise Granted To Mechanics

17 Garages, Repair Shops Give 10 Cents

Members of the International Association of Machinists Local 1019 have received a 10-cent hourly wage raise in contracts renewed with 17 East Liverpool auto dealers and repair shops.

Albert Oakes, business agent, said this raises journeymen's rates to $1.55 hourly, retroactive to Aug. 18. At the same time, the mechanics won a check-off of union dues and an improved vacation plan. This was changed to two weeks paid vacation for men with four years service instead of five, Mr. Oakes said.

The apprentice starting rate also was raised by 10 cents to $1.15 hourly, with a 5-cent hourly increase every six months until four years of service in the trade has been completed.

The new agreement was signed with the following concerns:

Stonesifer Chevrolet Co., Hays Motors, Inc., Carroll Motors, Inc., Litten Motor Sales, Turk Motors, Central Service, Douglass Auto Sales, Doverspike Motor Sales, Potters Motors, Chuck Kennedy, Faylor Lincoln Mercury, Smith Pontiac Sales, N. A. Pearce Garage, Wimmer Motor Sales, Watson Motor Co., Wilson Battery & Ignition Co. and the Keys Co.

Airline Seeks To Serve City

Twin-Engine DC-3's Proposed For Route

Lake Central Airlines, Inc., has applied for permission at Washington to serve 10 Ohio cities, including East Liverpool, on three new routes with twin-engine DC-3 planes.

Swaney Airport presumably would be used, as John Hall, manager, said the firm had contacted him. The field can handle planes of this type, he said.

A Civil Aeronautics Board attorney said the company, formerly Turner Airlines, filed applications for these routes:

Columbus to Detroit, via Marion, Sandusky and Toledo;

Columbus to Pittsburgh, via Zanesville, Dover, New Philadelphia and East Liverpool, and Columbus to Youngstown, via Dover, New Philadelphia, Akron and Canton.

The board said Lake Central asked for these routes in connection with earlier application to serve these points:

Gary, Ind., on a Chicago-Indianapolis route; Richmond and Kokomo, Ind., on a Cincinnati-to-Chicago leg, and Richmond, Ind., and Dayton, Springfield, Columbus, Marion and Mansfield, between Indianapolis and Cleveland.

These applications, as well as Lake Central's request for extension of its temporary certificate to operate, probably will be considered in the same proceedings with a number of other applications to serve Indiana and Ohio cities.

No date has been set.

Doctors, Dentists Draft Quota Set

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 (AP)—The Defense Department called today for the drafting of 1,522 physicians, dentists and veterinarians for the Army during November, December and January.

The total includes 922 physicians, 500 dentists and 100 veterinarians.

The department acted only four days after President Truman set in motion the machinery for the drafting of medical men. The first registration date is Oct. 16.

The department's announcement said the Navy and the Air Force have indicated they do not presently plan to make similar requests to Selective Service for the induction of the physicians and others.

Induction quotas listed for the Army follow: 300 doctors of medicine by Nov. 16; 300 doctors of medicine, 300 doctors of dental surgery or doctors of medical dentistry, and 50 doctors of veterinary medicine by Dec. 15; 322 medical doctors, 200 doctors of dental surgery or medical dentistry, and 50 doctors of veterinary medicine by Jan. 15.

Board Adopts Agreement On Training Auto

Motor Club Here To Provide Car For Use With Driving Course

An agreement with the Columbiana County Motor Club to provide an auto for the class in driving was approved by the Board of Education Monday night.

The dual control car will be furnished the school while the salary of the teacher and the insurance maintenance will be paid by the schools.

Superintendent W. G. Fordyce was directed to secure rates on indemnity insurance of $50,000-$100,000 instead of $25,000-$50,000 to protect the schools in case of an accident with the car.

The superintendent also was directed to contact local gasoline and service stations to determine if they would be interested in a contract for gasoline and general servicing of school busses. He will report the next meeting.

Superintendent Fordyce called the board's attention to the need for quarters at the Memorial Auditorium for storing of basketball equipment.

He suggested that a room be provided in the hallway off the dressing room. The building and grounds committee, consisting of I. A. Hoffman and J. E. Curry, was named to inspect the place suggested for the room Friday afternoon. It is estimated to cost about $100.

Superintendent Fordyce acted as clerk in the absence of Miss Kathryn Liebschner, who is convalescing from an operation, and he reported a bank balance of $53,732 30, of which $50,534.48 was in the general fund and $3,197.82 in the bond retirement and interest fund.

Bills amounting to $3,107.20 were approved and ordered paid.

Board Ready To Sue State In Road Fight

Injunctions Will Be Sought If State Acts To Appropriate Land

the board $4,290—$3,749 for Patterson Field and $541 for the West End School property.

The board demanded $37,777.50—$25,612.50 for Patterson Field and $12,165 for the West End School property.

Mr. Zehnder promised to submit the offer to the district engineer but nothing further was heard from the state, board members said.

"The state has absolutely ignored the school board in the plans for this road," Mr. Buzzard said. "Some months ago before the job was advertised, a district highway official from New Philadelphia came to East Liverpool to meet with us.

"When we suggested certain work at Patterson Field he said the plans were 'all wrapped up' and blew smoke rings from his cigar to show his indifference to our suggestions".

The board last night approved an outline of its position in the controversy, which was prepared by Superintendent W. G. Fordyce. It follows:

"The Board of Education is probably the largest single property holder with whom the State Highway Department had to negotiate in reference to construction of the Wellsville-Liverpool highway.

"The State Highway Department made an offer of $4,290 for damages and for the land taken for the road. Two engineers employed by the Board of Education made independent appraisals of the property and of the damages to be anticipated.

"Regardless of the legal question involved as to whether one agency of the state having the right of eminent domain could exercise this right against another state agency having the same right, the Board of Education feels the offer of the Highway Department in no way would compensate for the damage done nor for the necessary costs to repair and correct certain conditions in connection with West End School and Patterson Field.

"In regard to West End School, the Highway Department refused to grant access to the school property from the new highway. This means that in order to deliver coal to the school a new driveway would have to be constructed, two fire escape doors would have to be relocated, two fire escapes would have to be moved and relocated, and adequate fencing would be necessary for purposes of safety.

"On Patterson Field the same condition exists. The Highway Department proposes to take 40 feet on the Eighth St. side of Patterson Field, making it necessary to move all playground equipment and to construct steps from the new level of the road since the new highway will be higher at this point.

"Approximately 780 feet of fence must be moved at least once and perhaps twice. A new ticket booth and a new entrance will have to be constructed on the Eighth St. side. On the Fourth St. side of Patterson Field the Highway Department proposes to take 20 feet from the present boundary extending from the northeast corner of the board's property to a point 50 feet beyond the main entrance to Patterson Field.

"This will make it necessary to relocate the present ticket booths, reconstruct existing entrance aisles, and to provide for a protection against drainage on to the board's property from the improved Fourth St. Ext. The board feels that the appropriation of 20 feet on the Fourth St. Ext. side of Patterson Field is entirely unnecessary.

"If the fencing at this point is moved 20 feet towards the baseball diamond it will be necessary to relocate the baseball field. This is the only adequate baseball field in the city. The board proposes to resist the efforts of the Highway Department to appropriate this land in particular. A 16-inch sewer collects surface water from Denver St. and pours it on to the Patterson Field property at a point 20 feet north of the north end of the stadium. The Highway Department proposes only to extend this sewer 25 feet closer to the board's property. In its present condition this sewer has piled up in the last five years a deposit of silt in front of the stadium extending half its length.

"The board has met with the Highway Department representatives twice in an attempt to negotiate on the basis of changes which would preserve the use of the present property. The Highway Department has refused to change or modify its plans. The board is primarily interested in preserving the school property.

"If West End School were to prove unusable after construction of the road, its children would have to be assigned to buildings already filled to capacity.

"A large expenditure on this old building would appear to be unwise. As to Patterson Field, this represents the only recreation center of its kind in the city. Any funds received from the disposal of Patterson Field will have to be approved by a court since this is held by a trust. The money received for damages to Patterson Field would not go into the board's general fund but would have to be used on the field itself.

"The Board of Education feels that the people of the community should know the extent of the damage and repairs that will be necessary and issues this statement as an explanation to the community of their efforts to protect the property which is in their custody."

Watts Issues Apology For Cuffing Player

Board Censures Coach For Episode At Devilbiss Game

today and warned them any violation of this order would result in immediate dismissal," the superintendent declared.

Members of the board said they had been called numerous times since Friday night and urged that something "be done" about the coach's action. Some said they received anonymous letters also urging action.

The board agreed that Mr. Watts is a "good coach" and for that reason they believe that he should be retained.

"He lost his head, made a mistake and has acknowledged it," commented O. E. Hall, president. "I am in favor of giving him another chance". I. A. Hoffman, J. E. Curry and James D. Bennett also expressed the opinion that Mr. Watts should be reprimanded but were opposed to his suspension or discharge.

Raymond Buzzard declared that many fans were demanding that Mr. Watts be punished and that the board's action in censuring him would not be satisfactory to some. However, the board approved by a unanimous vote the following statement:

"The board censures the conduct of Coach Wade Watts at last Friday night's game. His attitude toward the boys and the boys' toward him, the sincerity of his regret over the incident, and his willingness to correct the mistake by publicly acknowledging it, convince the board he should have a second chance".

Mr. Watts' apology to members of the faculty Monday was virtually the same as that addressed to the public today.

His letter to the public follows:

"Undoubtedly, you have heard by now, and many of you saw for yourselves, the incident at last Friday night's football game. I imagine you are much ashamed of your High School football coach and feel that he has no business being a coach.

"I am making this statement to you so that the general public may be better informed of my actions and thoughts concerning the episode.

"First of all, I want the public to know I did not hurt the boy, but pushed his face with my open hand. It was not right, I realize, and it certainly looked bad to the crowd. The crowd gave me all the punishment I deserved and I would probably have been one of them had I been in their place.

"Since that time, I have been contacted by many of the boys on the team who have stated that they are still 100 per cent with me and by all means want me to be their coach.

"Because of them, who I actually do respect and almost live for, I have eliminated the thought of resigning. Instead, I want to correct my mistake and make it up to them, the school, and the general public by being a coach who the boys can respect and be proud of.

"Really, I am very much concerned of what the people think of me. I wanted to be the best football coach you ever had and although this knocked apart any progress I ever made, I want you to know that I can learn a lesson and do something about it.

"Whether or not you feel I ever will be a worthwhile coach I feel this statement is necessary to let you know I am going to make every effort to regain the public's confidence in me.

"I hope this affair will make me a better coach in the future, which I think it will. Please believe me when I say this statement truly expresses my feeling and is not inspired by outside influence or fear of losing my job".

Non-Defense Budgets Slashed

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 (AP)—The Budget Bureau announced today a $580,271,335 cut in non-defense appropriations—$30,271,335 more than the minimum cut Congress ordered after voting the funds.

The bureau's reductions, for the fiscal year ending next June 30, were approved by President Truman.

They were spread over 31 agencies in the executive branch which shared in the $35,554,600,425 single-package appropriations act to which the cuts applied.

That act made up a large part of the nearly $54,000,000,000 Congress appropriated this year before recessing until Nov. 27.

The biggest slash of all whacked $75,000,000, or half, off the $150,000,000 total voted by Congress for the Federal Security Agency's grants for hospital construction.

Other cuts of $50,000,000 or more: Rural electrification loans of the Agriculture Department, $66,427,000; reclamation and power marketing agencies of the Interior Department, $56,950,000; Army engineers civil activities, European recovery program (Marshall plan), and relief in occupied areas abroad, $50,000,000 each.

Ford, Yank Hurler, Faces Draft Physical

NEW YORK, Oct. 10 (UP)—Eddie Ford, brilliant young southpaw who won the final game of the World Series for the New York Yankees, will take a second draft physical tomorrow.

The 21-year-old pitcher was temporarily deferred from military service last month when an examination revealed a trace of a tropical infection in his system.

The deferment enabled Ford to finish the regular season with nine victories and one loss and then become the youngest pitcher ever to win a World Series game.

British Seek To Heat Towns With Atom Pile Excess

LONDON, Oct. 10 (AP)—British scientists are designing equipment to warm towns and industrial plants with the heat from atomic energy piles.

A Ministry of Supply announcement today said engineers at the Harwell atomic energy station will start building the necessary machinery early next year. Their first project will be to heat all the buildings of the Harwell establishment.

It is hoped, after a period of experimentation, to supply heat to towns near atomic energy plants.

Atomic piles produce intense heat which now is thrown off by passing air out through tall chimneys.

"One of the difficulties of utilizing this heat is to find metals which can withstand it," a ministry official said.

One plan for using the heat, being worked out by the scientists, is to generate steam for conventional heating systems.

Wanted—by Almost Half the People!

According to a recent widespread survey—almost half the motor car owners in the United States would choose a Cadillac, if they had their unrestricted choice.

This is, of course, a tremendous tribute to Cadillac, and to those who have designed it so well and built it so soundly for so long a time. But we think it is, equally, a tribute to the American people themselves.

Only a very small percentage of the American motoring public has ever owned or driven a Cadillac—or, for that matter, so much as enjoyed a ride in one as a passenger.

But that has not hindered the public in general from sensing the soundness of the Cadillac ideal—or from giving its wholehearted approval to the Cadillac crusade for quality. Where the effort is worthy—the American people approve.

We regret exceedingly that not every one who wants a Cadillac can own one. But we believe, sincerely, that many have needlessly denied themselves the pleasure.

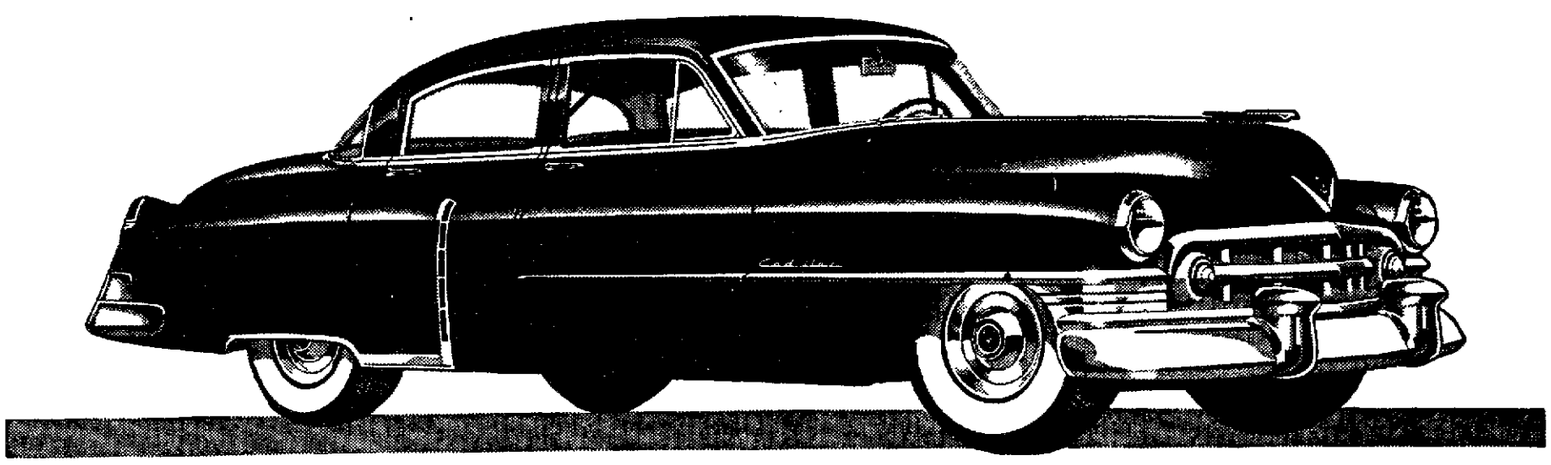

Cadillac cars are far more practical and economical to own than most people realize.

It costs less to buy the lower-priced Cadillacs than it costs to buy certain models of numerous other makes of cars.

Furthermore, a single tankful of gasoline will usually suffice for a whole day's drive.

And, of course, when it comes to endurance, a Cadillac stands alone—for its life-span has never been fully measured.

Yes, for a very wide group of people, a Cadillac car is a sensible, practical buy. We hope sincerely that it is for you.

On The Thickness Of Skin

DEAN ACHESON, the secretary of state, has pointed out that public life in the United States is no place for thin-skinned people.

Referring to the slings and arrows of outrageous fortune which have pierced his hide, he calls officeholding a "hard school".

Experience keeps a hard school, too. There may be one aspect of the criticsm which Mr. Acheson refers to that he has not understood clearly. The criticism was directed at Mr. Acheson's ideas, not at Mr. Acheson. It was not personal abuse that made him wince, but differences of opinion. Many believed and still do that he has much to learn about being secretary of state.

No man in public life in the United States can expect his countrymen to accept all his ideas. That is why this republic continues to be a free society. Anyone who cannot tolerate a difference of opinion is going to have a rough ride.

A public official believing every difference of opinion is an attack might as well give up. His over-sensitive skin will be as full of holes as a target on a Marine firing range. That seems to be what Mr. Acheson is thinking about.

He evidently is growing a thicker skin. Best of luck to him.

All Government Is Local

IT WOULD BE a costly lesson, but one experience with the kind of bombing attack feared by U. S. cities would teach state and national authorities that all government is local.

The notion that responsibility for public affairs somehow has been shifted to remote points is one of several such illusions created by the bellowing of distant politicians and office holders. There is no substance behind the noise they make. Another is the notion fostered by the authoritarians that Washington should spend billions but local government should be run on an austerity basis.

Their pretensions of authority are hollow without local government to back them up. And if they continue to think, as some of them obviously do think, that local ability to deal with civil defense awaits their decisions on points of law, it would take only one real emergency to wake them up.

The U. S. Conference of Mayors met last week in Washington. The atmosphere of the meeting was not friendly, because the mayors wanted to tell certain federal officials that local government is tired of waiting for overdue decisions at the national level. There would be the same kind of atmosphere in a meeting with state officials National defense, in the sense of waging war against an enemy, is necessarily a federal responsibility. But in the sense of doing something about the kind of war which may be waged against U. S. cities, national defense is a local responsibility.

It would not be a bureaucrat from Washington or a jobholder from the state capital who would answer fire alarms, wield a shovel, bandage a wound or keep the population from panic. It would be a neighbor, and the neighbor would not ask remote consent before lending a hand, contrary to the practice in recent years of looking to Washington or the closest branch office for the wherewithal to stay alive.

Two Sides Of The Same Thing

AMERICANS who forget that Korea and Manchuria are two sides of the same thing in Asiatic power politics are in danger of being caught off base.

Specifically, they are in danger of assuming that the war in Korea can be viewed separately from the threat of war in Manchuria. The threat exists in the posibility that allied armies moving toward the border of Manchuria may become involved with Manchurian troops.

Manchuria is the stronghold of the Chinese Communists. Manchuria and Korea are one and the same thing to Russia, which traditionally has sought both of them for the same purpose —expansion into the productive areas of Asia. Russian ambition in this respect has been the source of friction with Japan, which has wanted Korea and Manchuria for the same purpose.

So far as the Kremlin is concerned, there is no border between Manchuria and Korea. The official border is of no more consequence to Russian planners than the imaginary border between North and South Korea. It is unrealistic to believe troops moving northward will be allowed to call a truce if they come face to face with troops representing Manchuria

Korea's basic resources include coal, iron, copper, lead, zinc, tungsten, mica, nickel, gold, silver and many other industrial and precious minerals.

Weathermen often call typhoons and hurricanes by feminine names, such as "Gracie" and "Gloria", to identify and follow these fearful storms of the west Pacific and Atlantic.

Butterflies often travel as much as 2,000 miles to find winter homes in warmer climates.

Behind The News

By George Sokolsky

On Hand—An Anti-Communist Army

I ONCE HEARD Countess Tolstoy ask why the United States, in all our troubles with Russia, does not use the knowledge and abilities of anti-Stalinist Russians. Our State Department apparently has rejected them.

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. of Massachusetts, recently raised this issue again. He said:

"One of Hitler's most glaring errors in World War II was his stupid handling of the millions of anti-Communist Russians who hated their Russian rulers so much that they welcomed the German conquerors with open arms.

One of the most famous Russian anti-Communist leaders was General Vlasov, who organized an army of non-Communist Russians to fight on the German side. I saw some of these Vlasov soldiers at the time of the invasion of southern France. They were in German uniform and appeared to be Mongolians.

There were several millions of anti-Communist men available but Hitler did not have enough professional officers, who spoke their language and knew their customs, to organize them into effective military formations and lead them in combat."

ACTUALLY, it is estimated that there are about 2,000,000 such men available. Many of them, I am told, are Ukrainians with underground connections in their mother country. The Hungarian underground is particularly active and effective.

In fact, there is a Hungarian government-in-exile in the United States that is directing a movement in that country.

Such movements as these are naturally not readily describable since open activity on their part would nullify the value of their work. But government agencies should be able to establish close contacts with them.

More could be accomplished through such men, with all the bitterness that must be in their hearts at the fate of their countries, than in current American propaganda activities which seem to get nowhere.

The Army now has authority to enlist 2,500 aliens. When the bill on this subject was passed by the Senate, there was authority for 25,000 aliens but this figure was whittled down.

Considering the possibilities, 2,500 is not enough. Some day, this country will realistically recruit Japanese, Germans and Formosan Chinese, not as mercenaries, but as high-minded, anti-Communist fighters who seek to join in the struggle against the despoiler of their peoples.

Many such men are veterans of wars, professional officers who can find no outlets for their abilities, experts in a variety of fields —men who can be of the greatest service to us.

There will be some who say that our experience with atom bomb scientists should discourage us from trusting aliens too far. The fact is that in the case of Dr. Klaus Fuchs, an alien found guilty of espionage, and Dr. Alan Nunn May, there should have been no possibility of error.

Dr. Fuchs's history, as disclosed at his trial in London, should have been known to British and American security officers. The fact that they were careless or even favorably disposed toward Russia and the Communists should not lead us into false conclusions about using aliens to fight Russia or her satellites.

IN THE ATOM bomb instances, those in charge, including Senator Brien McMahon's Senate watchdog committee, failed properly to screen the aliens. We must assume that their carelessness will not be a pattern for the armed services for all time, and that adequate screening is to be expected hereafter.

Certainly, there can no longer be any excuse for a Klaus Fuchs, not even the excuse that a president liked Uncle Joe.

Senator Lodge said of this:

". . . we should as actively seek instead the help of selected alien soldiers on the same voluntary basis which actuated the countless aliens who fought for our country during the War of the Revolution, the Mexican War, the Civil War, and thereafter.

"It is safe to say that we could never have made our maximum effort in these wars without the alien soldier, fighting on a voluntary basis in the uniform of the United States. In all our wars we have welcomed allies who fight at our side under their own flag and in the uniform of their own country.

"We should not reject—indeed we should warmly welcome — the individual ally who wears our uniform and fights under our flag. We should sense the immense difference between the mercenary hireling and the volunteer citizen candidate for which our present law provides."

Never Out Of Work

The Question Of The 1950 Election

By Mark Sullivan

IF THE NATIONAL election that will take place one month from today were a presidential one, and if Mr. Truman were a candidate to succeed himself, the principal issue would be readily apparent.

It would be the record of the Truman administration. This might be modified to some extent by the factor that served President Roosevelt well in his 1944 campaign for re-election.

We were in the very midst of a world war then and many voters were susceptible to an appeal which expressed itself as "don't change horses in the middle of the stream". It is doubtful, however, whether many voters think of the country as in such a state of crisis and urgency as to justify the "don't change horses" argument.

To speculate on what might be if Mr. Truman were running for re-election next month is not wholly beside the point. Actually, Mr. Truman and his record figure in the present campaign in important ways.

One of these is apparent when partisans of the administration tacitly or expressly urge voters to elect a congress that will support the President's program. One variation of this is extremely vocal. Spokesmen of political action on the part of labor urge their following to defeat members of Congress who in the present session did not support President Truman's program.

Concretely and with especial vehemence they urge defeat of members of Congress who frustrated one detail of Mr. Truman's program, his determined attempt to bring about repeal of the Taft-Hartley labor law.

THIS ASPECT of the campaign is especially conspicuous in Ohio. There Senator Taft, running for re-election, incurs attack for a double reason—he was at once an author of the Taft-Hartley law and the leader of successful opposition in Congress to Mr. Truman's demands for repeal of it.

In more than a symbolic sense the fight in Ohio is between Senator Taft and President Truman. The situation that makes the Ohio contest a national one is suggested by an epithet used by some of Mr. Taft's opponents, derisively they call him "Mr. Republican".

In a strangely paradoxical way, President Truman is in the campaign just because he is not in it. He is in office and no action by voters can terminate his tenure for two years and three months, until the end of his term in January, 1953.

How this condition may work out in voters' minds is intricately difficult to surmise. There may be voters who, in a direct election on the presidency, would vote to terminate Mr. Truman's tenure and would do so aggressively—but who, considering that Mr. Truman must remain president for two years and three months, would be relatively indifferent about the outcome of the Congressional election.

THERE IS a partial and perverse analogy between the position of President Truman and that of Prime Minister Chamberlain of Britain preceding the second world war. Mr. Chamberlain followed toward Hitler a course which critics called "appeasement" but which Mr. Chamberlain said would result in "peace in our time".

When the end of the course was war, Mr. Chamberlain was dropped from leadership and Winston Churchill substituted.

In the case of Mr. Truman, he has been responsible for our relations with Communist Russia during the five years since he took office. His responsibility is increased and made conspicuous by the fact that the Republicans in Congress during the period practiced non-partisan support of the administration's foreign policy.

At the end of the five years, the present stage of our relations with Communist Russia is war with prospect of more and vast preparations for more. In this condition, if the coming election were a presidential one, with Mr. Truman running for re-election, would the country be likely to continue him in responsibility for our relations with Communist Russia?

SINCE THE coming election is a Congressional one, and Mr. Truman will be in office during the two years which compose the term of the Congress about to be elected, the question in the election is what kind of Congress?

As bearing on our relations with Communist Russia and foreign relations generally, there is a condition evident though partially tacit in the Congress that now exists and probably throughout the country. If the present Congress were re-elected man for man it would take an increased share of responsibility in this field.

Not only Republicans but Democrats have in the past felt disquiet about the assumption that Congress should give more or less unquestioning support to the administration's foreign policies. Many Democrats as well as many Republicans who contributed to the overwhelming majorities which supported many administration proposals have felt silent disquiet about some of them.

They must now feel that their past disquiet was justified. The very fact that our relations with Communist Russia have come to a stage of war is an indictment of the way those relations have been conducted, and the reaction must include some self-reproach on the part of Congress

The Cabinet Turnover

Mr. Truman Leads For Number Of Members

WASHINGTON

HARRY TRUMAN has had more cabinet members than any other president.

During his five and a half years in the White House, 30 different persons have served in his cabinet at one time or another. U. S. Grant had 24, Franklin D. Roosevelt 24, Theodore Roosevelt 23, and John Tyler 20.

Those figures may be misleading unless you realize that Presidents Truman, Theodore Roosevelt and Tyler each inherited one whole cabinet of someone else's choosing. To illustrate: When Mr. Truman took office after F.D.R.'s death, he found a 10-member cabinet already there, and he has brought in only 20 new men since that time. And F.D.R., of course, served longer than any other president, so his normal turnover would be higher.

Actually Mr. Truman has made 22 appointments. He named George C. Marshall twice — as secretary of state in 1947 and as secretary of defense last month. And he named James Forrestal as secretary of defense in 1947 after inheriting him as secretary of the Navy.

Mr. Truman has removed some cabinet members who weren't in harmony with him. He has shifted a couple to other jobs. Some have resigned because of ill health or other personal reasons. One died in office.

The cabinet is an interesting institution in American history.

It grew up by custom, rather than by law. The Constitution says nothing about a cabinet.

George Washington started it in 1789 when he began calling in department heads as his advisers. The word "cabinet" began to be applied to these meetings in about 1793. As a group the cabinet is only advisory.

But the members, as department heads, must be confirmed by the Senate.

At first the cabinet had only five members. As new departments were created, it grew to seven by 1849, and to 10 by 1913.

The members then were the secretaries of state, treasury, war, Navy, interior, agriculture, commerce, and labor, and the attorney general and postmaster general.

In 1947 the number was reduced to nine when the job of secretary of defense was created and he became the only representative of the armed services in the cabinet.

Democrats In Captivity

By Raymond Moley

COLUMBUS

THE CAMPAIGN against Senator Taft in Ohio strongly resembles a fight between two rival factions in a big union. There is no picketing as yet, and no violence. But there are reckless and irresponsible charges, dubious statements of "fact", demagogis appeals to class prejudice, and effective but irrational monkeyshines.

An example of the latter is the hanging of an effigy of Senator Taft at a picnic, with the sale of "chances" to knock out its teeth with baseballs.

What makes the situation dangerous for Senator Taft is the authentic but hastily contrived alliance between the AFL and the CIO. The political arms of the two big federations have a common purpose for once.

A general conference is pending, at which an effort will be made to unify the endorsements of both groups, although that will be difficult when they get down to candidates for minor offices.

At this writing, there is grave doubt that the AFL-CIO will support Democratic Governor Frank Lausche, and it is quite certain that some local unions will endorse the Republican candidate for governor, Don Ebright.

Mr. Lausche, a very independent person, has offended labor leaders on many occasions, and he is suspected, not without good cause, of favoring Mr. Taft. The official AFL slate of endorsement, due in mid-October, may be silent on a choice for governor.

After the campaign, whatever the outcome, the unions may find themselves with the Democratic party on their hands. If they defeat Senator Taft, it will mean that the opposition to Republicans will not be the Democratic party, but the political arms of organized labor.

The Democracy of Ohio, which has a great tradition, will go the way of the Liberal Party in England. The old two-party system will be gone.

This is one of the many reasons why far-sighted Democrats are working and hoping for Senator Taft's re-election.

Housewives On Tour

By Jane Eads

WASHINGTON

A PERT YOUNG brunette, Yvonne Henderson, is assistant travel representative of the Economic Cooperation Administration's Paris office.

It's Miss Henderson's job to see what the U. S. can do to increase American travel to Europe.

"Up to now," Miss Henderson told me ,"we've found tourism is the biggest single dollar earner. In England tourism brings in more dollars than the country's exports of scotch whiskey and textiles combined. In France it tops the perfume, wine and textile exports."

Housewives and students do most of the traveling abroad. "From this knowledge, gained by making a survey of the travel market in America, we have decided more thought should be given to housewives," Miss Henderson said.

"If they make up the bulk of the travelers they should get special attention, something else besides just the rubberneck tours with which lots of tourists seem satisfied."

After all, she says, all American housewives don't go to France just to see the Eiffel tower. Paris is famous for its perfumes.

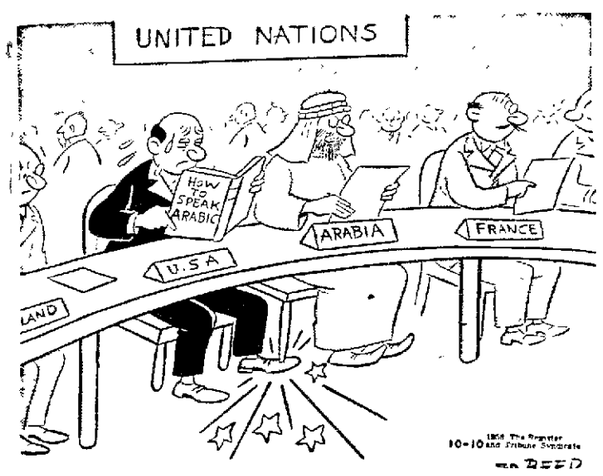

"So we are trying to arrange things that will appeal especially to special interest groups", Miss Henderson said—"Trips to the fields of flowers at Grasse on the Riviera, and to the perfume factories. Visits to Limoges where the porcelain is made, to the Cordon Bleu cooking school in Paris, where the world's famous dishes are concocted."

The Great Headache Hunt

THERE ARE THREE candidates for mayor of New York. This is hard to understand when you realize that it is easier to get a job on professional wrestling programs where the work is just as rough and the applause more dependable.

The job of running a great metropolis is no longer an honor; it is an ordeal by fire, a nervous breakdown with ticker-tape, a physical collapse in technicolor and a super headache with reviewing stand privileges.

Nobody has had carefree fun on the job since Jimmy Walker. Fiorello LaGuardia found moderate enjoyment, but it was because he was by nature a showman, radio star, prosecuting attorney, cooking instructor, patent medicine barker and Little Napoleon.

Bill O'Dwyer thought it was going to be nice work, but found in the first six months that those earlier jobs of hod-carrier, coal passer and plasterer were periods of intensive loafing by comparison.

He wasn't in City Hall very long before the doctors had him in bed under orders to take it easy. This was like making that request of a man trying to ride a brahama steer in a rodeo on concrete floors.

THE JOB drives a man from pillar to post to Mexico City. Nobody should have been surprised when Mr. O'Dwyer grabbed that Mexico offer. If we had been in his place we would not have stopped this side of Tibet.

To be a successful mayor of an American metropolis calls for the physique of Primo Carnera, the endurance of an amphibious landing barge, the patience of Job, the wisdom of Solomon and the heart of Jumbo the elephant.

If the occupant has the stomache of a goat, so much better. And it helps, too, if his feet are good, his voice strong and his video personality not too alarming. He must be a man who doesn't mind lying awake nights and who doesn't blow up when the sleeping pills lose their punch.

He must mix business with politics and mix both with banquet hall indigestion. He must be able to sleep while talking, talk while sleeping and think while doing either or both.

The difference between being head of a great city and being head of a great corporation like U. S. Steel or General Motors is that the heads of these corporations are never expected to review parades, welcome swimmers, open a new parkway or dedicate a tugboat during office hours.

They can eat at home regularly also without imperiling their popularity.

YET THREE men, all of whom have passed intelligence tests, are in a fight for the job in New York.

Ferdinand Pecora, regular Democratic nominee, is even willing to leave a nice job as a judge with regular hours and no hourly doses of bicarb.

Edward Corsi, Republican candidate, has been a state labor commissioner. You would think that if he wanted trouble he could find it there.

Vincent Impellitteri, acting mayor, who wants to stay via the ballot box, is young and hasn't suffered much. You can understand why he thinks it a good job.

Our suggestion is that all three candidates be sworn in as mayors and allowed to divide up the work. And that Mrs. Impellitteri, who looks pretty swell in the photos, do the City Hall video programs.

School Levies To Be Backed At Wellsville

Board Sets Drive To Win Public Support For Nov. 7 Issues

The Wellsville Board of Education Monday night launched plans for a campaign to win support of two school levies up for renewal at the November election.

The current expense levies are 3 mills for five years and 4 mills for two years. The 3-mill levy has been a collected for some time, while the 4-mill levy was voted two years ago when the board lacked sufficient funds to operate the school system and had to borrow from a bank

Superintendent S. E. Daw and Clerk Raymond Rolley will prepare papers for distribution, showing how the schools use the money received from the levies. Board members also suggested that handbills be passed to all homes in the city.

Ed Pugh, High School teacher, said he will have his American Problems Class conduct a survey and relay the information to the board for use in drawing up question and answer material on the levies.

The board will meet next week with Mr. Pugh and Paul Talbott, temporary chairman of the Wellsville Citizens Committee for Public Schools, to prepare further campaign matter.

Clerk Rolley reported the board still owes about $35,000 to the bank and this will be reduced to $20,000 by the end of the year using half of $31,000 in state foundation funds due for the rest of the year. The loan has been decreased by about $20,000 in two years

He said tax settlements from the county will provide $42,000. The total revenue will be sufficient to pay current bills and teachers' salaries for the last three months.

President Tom Nelson remarked 'the financial report sounds' better than it has for a long time."

In other business, Jack Vogel reported he still is waiting word from the Federal Works Agency in connection with a request for $20,000 to help in planning the proposed replacement of the MacDonald School.

Mary Rahter said she received complaints from several residents that the board has not let the public know what is going on.

But Mr. Vogel said the public has been informed of developments and the board could not proceed with anything until the government grants the planning funds.

Mr. Nelson said as soon as the funds are assured the board will call a special meeting and air the matter. The board hopes to submit a bond issue in the spring primary.

On the recommendation of Mr. Daw, the board authorized a contract with the Vance Heating Co. of Steubenville to replace tubes in the boiler at the Beacom Memorial Gym at a cost of about $950.

Mr. Daw said the work may be done under rehabilitation plan by which the state shares part of the cost.

Mr. Daw turned over $328 77 to Clerk Rolley from sale of supplies during September.

The board granted the Wellsville Boosters Club use of the gym on Dec. 1 or 6 for a benefit basketball game and tentatively granted it use of the gym for professional wrestling matches, pending a check with neighboring schools to determine if their gym floors were harmed by similar matches.

C E. Peters, Boosters' president, made the requests.

Senator Sees Religion United Against Russia

ORLANDO, Fla, Oct 10 (AP)—The United Nations action in Korea has solidified more people of more different religions behind one cause than anything since the Crusades, says Senator Spessard Holland (D) of Florida

"Where it was only Christians fighting to preserve their religion during the Crusades, today we see Christians, Mohammedans, Jewry and other religions fighting side by side against this Communist threat," he told the district convention of Kiwanians yesterday.

The United Nations "recuperative power" in Korea and the American atom bomb stockpile have put the Russians "in such a position that they will take a long look before they jump on Uncle Sam again", he added.

Court To Decide On West Virginia Part In River Pact

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 (AP)—The Supreme Court yesterday agreed to review a decision which blocked West Virginia from participating in the work of the Ohio River Valley Water Sanitation Commission.

The decision was given by the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals. It held the State Legislature violated the West Virginia constitution when it ratified a compact for participation in the commission's activities.

The state appealed to the highest tribunal to overturn the decision. The federal government, in a brief in support of the state's appeal, said the decision would have "a crippling effect" on sanitation work in the Ohio River basin.

The compact has been ratified by the legislatures of Illinois, Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio, New York, Pennsylvania and Virginia.

Firemen Called On 4 Minor Runs

Firemen spent a busy week end answering four minor alarms.

They were called to West Eighth St. and Edwards Ave. Saturday at 4:40 p. m. when old lumber caught fire in the cellar of a house owned by the state.

The house is being torn down to make way for the new superhighway between East Liverpool and Wellsville.

They were called to the River Road at the rear of the Midway Oil Co. property to quell a grass fire, but the blaze was out on arrival Sunday at 2 10 p. m. It apparently started from a spark from a passing railroad engine, they said.

A Pennsylvania car caught fire on West Fifth St. Sunday at 9 14 p. m. when a short developed in the wiring. The owner was not known, the report said.

Another call to flush gasoline leaking from a car parked in Pleasant Lane was received Saturday at 1 25 p. m. The car is owned by Robert E. Brown, 701 Armstrong Lane.

Ex-City Man Suffers Wounds In Korea

A former East Liverpool man has been evacuated to the Oakland (Calif.) Naval Hospital with bullet wounds received Sept. 10 while fighting with the First Cavalry Division at Taegu.

He is Sergeant Edward W. Piker, 25, grandson of Mrs. Anna Asher of East Fourth St., and the husband of the former Miss Marjorie McConnell of Bradshaw Ave, who now lives in California with their three children. While here he was known as Eddie Lange.

In a letter to Mrs. Asher, the sergeant's wife said he was hit in the left shoulder and stomach as he and a South Korean tried to carry a wounded GI to safety. Pinned down by small arms fire after being hit, he rolled 35 feet to cover, the wife said.

A son of Mrs. B. B. Burge of Washington, and Robert Piker of Terre Haute, Ind., he fought on Okinawa with the First Marine Division during World War 11.

Sergeant Piker attended Wellsville schools and worked for the Quality Feed Co. and the Valley Motor Transit Ct.

Last Of Police Radio Equipment Arrives

The last shipment of new radio equipment for the Police Department arrived Tuesday at City Hall.

Police Chief L. J. Wise said the way is clear for installation of the $5,000 communications system as soon as the manufacturer sends technicians.

Central Station transmitter equipment arrived yesterday, along with two postwar model "walkie-talkie" sets—transmitter-receiver sets not much larger or heavier than a woman's handbag. Mobile equipment for cruisers arrived several weeks ago.

The equipment was purchased to comply with a Federal Communications Commission order requiring law enforcement agencies to broadcast on new frequencies. Police radio has been in use here since early 1945.

HIS INVENTIONS CREATED SCORES OF INDUSTRIES—MILLIONS OF JOBS!

UNCOMMON MEN LIKE THESE WERE FREE TO USE THEIR TALENTS, AMBITION AND COURAGE TO EARN FOR THEMSELVES!

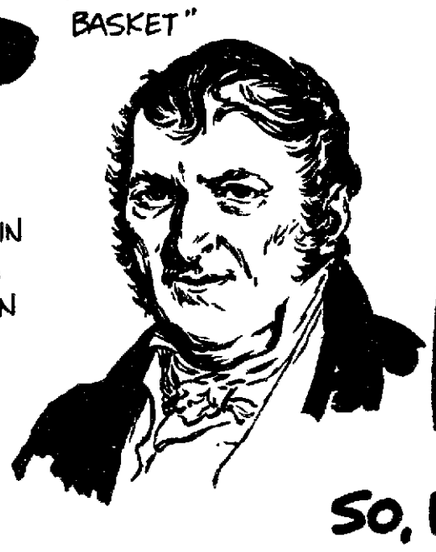

ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL
INVENTED THE TELEPHONE. TODAY THERE ARE 820,000 BELL TELEPHONE STOCK-HOLDERS, 656,000 EMPLOYEES, AND AMERICANS HAVE THE USE OF 60,000,000 TELEPHONES

ELI WHITNEY
PATENTED THE COTTON GIN IN 1794 WHICH HAD A TREMENDOUS IMPACT ON TEXTILE INDUSTRY

ORVILLE & WILBUR WRIGHT
INVENTED MANY "NEW AND USEFUL IMPROVEMENTS IN FLYING MACHINE" IN 1906...MADE JOBS FOR NEARLY A MILLION MEN AND WOMEN.

HERE'S WHY THIS COULD HAVE HAPPENED ONLY IN AMERICA!

OUR AMERICAN GOVERNMENT WAS FORMED TO PROTECT MAN'S INDIVIDUAL FREEDOM...TO PROTECT EVERY MAN'S RIGHT TO LIFE, LIBERTY AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS, SO LONG AS HE DID NOT INTERFERE WITH THOSE SAME RIGHTS OF ANY OTHER MAN.

SO, EVERY INDIVIDUAL WAS FREE TO WORK AND HOPE FOR PROFIT BY—

INVENTING NEW PRODUCTS, NEW MACHINES — THE BASIS OF NEW JOBS IN WHICH MEN WORKED SHORTER HOURS FOR HIGHER PAY.

RISKING PART OF HIS EARNINGS IN NEW INVENTIONS, NEW FACTORIES, NEW MACHINES WHICH FREE AMERICAN WORKMEN COULD USE.

COMPETING WITH OTHERS IN MAKING AND SELLING HIS PRODUCTS.

Senator Loses Plea To Upset Fine, Sentence

Punishment Stands Against Taylor For Using 'Negro Door'

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 (AP)—The Supreme Court yesterday denied Senator Taylor (D) of Idaho a review of his conviction on disorderly conduct charges in Birmingham, Ala.

Senator Taylor was fined $50 and sentenced to 180 days in jail. The charge resulted from a scuffle the senator had with Birmingham police May 1, 1948, when he tried to enter a Negro youth meeting through a door marked "Negro Entrance".

Presumably it will be up to Alabama to begin any proceedings to enforce the sentence. Senator Taylor is now in Idaho.

Denial of Senator Taylor's appeal for a review was one of 333 orders handed down by the Supreme Court, either granting or refusing reviews.

In other cases, the court:

►Refused to reconsider a June 5 decision requiring Texas to admit a Negro student to the all-white Law School of the University of Texas.

►Denied the University of Maryland a review of a Maryland Court of Appeals decision that the state is obliged to admit a Negro girl to its Schools of Nursing. The denial lets the Court of Appeals decision stand unchanged.

►Declined to review a case in which Negroes were prevented from occupying houses on two streets in Oklahoma City. The court's denial presumably was on the basis that when the case was tried in Oklahoma state courts, federal questions of law were not raised.

►Agreed to consider an attack made by the International Workers Order, Inc., of New York City on validity of the government's loyalty program. The organization had asked that the program be declared unconstitutional and that its name be stricken from a list of "subversive" organizations compiled by the attorney general. Lower federal courts here dismissed the organization's case.

►Agreed to review a decision that damage suits may be filed against individuals accused of violating federal civil rights legislation. The decision was given by the U.S. Circuit Court in San Francisco in a case in which members of the Crescenta-Canada Democratic Club of Los Angeles county sued five persons for damages. The five were accused of breaking up a club meeting at La Crescenta, Calif.

►Refused the Pioneer News Service, Inc., of St. Louis a review of its fight against a Missouri Public Service Commission order to shut off telephone service to the firm. The order was issued on request of the governor and attorney general of Missouri. They charged that Pioneer used telephone service in violating state laws.

►Decided to review a decision that the F.B.I. may not be compelled to reveal its confidential records in open court. The decision was given by the U.S. Circuit Court in Chicago in the case of G-Man George B. McSwain, who refused to obey a District Court order requiring him to produce F.B.I. records on Roger (The Terrible) Touhy, prohibition era gangster.

►Agreed to review decisions that the government must make good for pay increases ordered by a federal agency for workers during wartime seizure of a coal mine and a trucking firm.

►Agreed to review a decision that an employer who is ordered to reinstate discharged workers and give them back pay may deduct the amount of state unemployment compensation which the workers received. The decision was given by the U.S. Circuit Court in New Orleans.

Senator Doesn't Plan To Surrender Himself

POCATELLO, Idaho, Oct. 10 (AP)—If the city of Birmingham wants Senator Glen H. Taylor to serve six months in jail, it is going to have to wait until it can grab him in Alabama.

And it doesn't appear that Senator Taylor is going back there soon.

Asked if he planned to surrender to Birmingham authorities, Senator Taylor said:

"No. I'm not going down there and turn myself over to that chain gang."

For 'Talents' Project

Silver Dollars Handed Out To 200 At Church

Nearly 200 members of the Orchard Grove Community Methodist Church started the task Monday of putting silver "talents" to work for the benefit of the church.

New silver dollars, furnished by a friend of the congregation, were distributed to members in a "surprise" service Sunday morning.

Those accepting the "talents" were urged to use the dollars in some money-making venture which will end with Christmas Sunday, on Dec. 24. Many novel ways of putting the dollars to "work" will be followed by the men, women and children who accepted the "talents". Money derived through this project will go to the building fund.

The distribution was made during a drama in which Dan Cooper, Mrs. Jennie Cunningham and Edward Sanford took part. A curtain was drawn, exposing a huge Bible opened to Matthew 25, in which the parable of the talents was detailed. The new silver coins, obtained from the Federal Reserve Bank at Cleveland, were scattered upon the opened pages of the Bible. The distribution was made by Rev. David W. Skeen.

This plan of using "talents" in money-making ventures has been used successfully by many churches, according to Rev. Skeen. A similar financial campaign was conducted in the First Methodist Church about three years ago.

Judo Experts Give Program For Students

Ivy Morgan and John Dahler, "judo" experts, entertained for the assembly of the student body of East Liverpool High School Monday afternoon in the Memorial Auditorium.

Their demonstration included how to disarm an adversary, the execution of throws, proper methods of searching a person, tactics a girl may use to ward off a masher and the advantage of certain calesthenics and tumbling.

The attraction was booked through the Antrim Lyceum Bureau of Philadelphia. Jean Hoffman was program chairman.

Firemen At Newell To Hold Fund Campaign

With nary a wisp of smoke in sight, members of the Newell Volunteer Fire Department will pay a visit to homes in the community as they launch their annual maintenance drive, beginning tonight.

Vernon Betteridge, drive chairman, urged residents to have their donations ready in order to speed up collections. This is National Fire Prevention Week.

The firemen completed plans for the solicitation at their meeting Monday night in the Fire Station.

The campaign will continue the remainder of the week. Others on the committee are Mike Gibas and Phillip Pelley.

Stones Batter Judge's Home

Friend Of Negroes Target For Attack

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 10 (AP) — The home of Federal Judge J. Waties Waring, champion of equal rights for Negroes, was stoned last night by unidentified persons.

The judge and his Detroit-born wife, both of whom have been bitterly assailed by South Carolinians for their opposition to Negro segregation, escaped the barrage unhurt.

Federal Bureau of Investigation agents who were called by the judge refused to comment on the incident, but Judge Waring said one brick sailed through his living room window and another through a screen door.

Local police, who also came to investigate, were ordered out of the house by the Warings.

Negroes Lose Appeal To Open Law School

GREENSBORO, N. C., Oct. 10 (AP) — The University of North Carolina Law School will continue to restrict its enrollment to white students under a ruling handed down in District Federal Court there yesterday.

Federal Judge Johnson J. Hayes, in ruling against four Negro students who had sought to enter the law school, said facilities provided at the Negro law school at North Carolina College are equal to those at the university and in so meinstances superior.

"Seeing is believing!"
says MRS. KATHRYN HOAGLAND
Route 2, LOUISVILLE

"I'll admit I was skeptical about this 'no rinse' business, so I really put it to the test! I washed all my bedding—quilts, blankets, even spreads—with No-Rinse Surf. What a difference it made, not having to rinse those heavy things!"

"I kept peeking at the wash on the line—to see what would happen. Well, my blankets dried so fluffy and smelled fresher than if they'd been rinsed. All my clothes were softer and colors came out brighter and clearer than ever before!"

"Seeing is believing, but I still can't get over the way No-Rinse Surf got my husband's shirts so white—without a bit of bleaching or hard rubbing! I washed in half the usual time—and even the ironing seemed to go easier. You bet I'm sold on No-Rinse Surf."

See for yourself with No-Rinse Surf—only washday product approved by U. S. Testing Co. for no rinsing!

now . . . 9 years later . . . 2,425,000 kilowatts

The defense program is stepping up the demand for electric power. Civilian use of electricity is going up. You ask if the supply of electric power is increasing, too . . .

This is the answer: Thanks to new plants and additions to older ones, customers of this company and its American Gas and Electric System affiliates now have nearly twice as much electricity available to them as there was at the time of Pearl Harbor, less than nine short years ago.

And the System has 1,000,000 kilowatts of new capacity coming on the line by the summer of 1953. Of this, 450,000 kilowatts will come into service in 1951, another 350,000 in 1952, and 200,000 in 1953—making a total of 3,380,000 kilowatts available in the seven-state area the Sysem serves.

Never — in war or peace — wherever the lines of this company and its affiliates extend — has electricity been too little or too late.

And Here is Another Successful Business Man Helped by HADACOL . .

He Suffered Deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron

Jacob Goldberg should have been a very happy man. At an age when most men are still struggling to make a living, he was able to retire from his Chicago metal business to his beautiful 150 acre estate at Music Mountain near Hot Springs National Park, Ark.

But at a time when life should have showered it's greatest blessings on him, he met with unhappiness. He became run down through a deficiency of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin, and Iron and as a result food had no appeal to him and he tried many expensive ways of overcoming his discomfort.

Then he saw the blessings that inexpensive HADACOL had brought to his daughter and many of his friends, who had such deficiences. Life is more pleasant for Mr. Goldberg today, but let him tell you about it, himself. Here is how he overcame these deficiencies:

"I was generally run down some time ago. I lost appetite and my food just did not digest. I knew I needed food but even the tastiest dishes had no appeal to me. I have been coming to Hot Springs since 1937 and now make my home in that city. Recently I just about gave up hope of feeling well and happy again. I had tried almost every thing. I decided on HADACOL because it had helped my daughter and many friends. I have never regretted the decision. I am hungry all the time after taking only four bottles of HADACOL. I have back my old pep and vigor and all my food agrees with me. I have recommended HADACOL to many of my friends and see the good it is doing."

Yes, HADACOL Does Help

thousands and thousands of fine folks who are suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron HADACOL is wonderful in the way it builds up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to carry these precious Vitamins and Minerals to every organ, and every part of your body—to the heart, liver, kidneys and lungs. Today, even hundreds of doctors are recommending HADACOL to their patients.

You Owe It To Yourself

. . . to give HADACOL a chance. Refuse substitutes, don't let anyone tell you something else is "just as good." Insist on genuine HADACOL. You risk nothing because HADACOL is sold only on a strict money-back guarantee. You'll feel better with the first few bottles or you take your money back. Trial size only $1.25. Large Family or Hospital size, $3.50.

Billy Rose Without Elephants

THE BILLY ROSE SHOW should come as no surprise to anyone who has ever read the Billy Rose column, which must comprise most of the literate population of the earth. The Rose column is even carried now by one of the largest papers in Japan, and, when I haven't anything else to do, I like to sit and dream about a Japanese, cross-legged on a wooden mat in Kobe, reading about Know-It-All Louie, Nick the Carp and the other hep characters that inhabit the Rose world. What's the Japanese for "hep", anyhow?

The Rose show is a television dramatization of some of the stories that have appeared in his column. Most, but not all of them, center around Broadway; they are peopled by very tough and—I can't seem to avoid the word—hep characters; and invariably, while Mr. Rose rather deplores innocence, it triumphs in the end over the guilty usually through the intervention of fate which takes a pretty strong hand in many of the stories.

THEY'RE pretty good stories, though, and Mr. Rose is seeing to it that they're shown off at their best. He has enlisted the services as producer of Jed Harris, the farmer boy wonder, who is certainly the best man around to get the most out of the Rose yarns. "There'll be nothing spectacular," declared Mr. Rose on opening the show. "No showgirls and none of the razzmatazz and hoopla I've been mixed up with for the last 25 years. I'm not interester in six-inch elephants or inch and a half chorus girls. They're just little stories."

For a 16-inch medium, that's a wise decision. The first little story called The Night They Made A Bum Out Of Helen Hayes—a typical Rose title in that it probably startled a lot of people into looking at a story that had nothing to do with Helen Hayes — was about a poker game, more specifically about a single $23,000 pot. The chump in the story managed to outwit—or seemingly outwit—the hep character for the pot. But, as usual, there was the twist, Mr. Rose recognizing that chumps had best not tangle with hep characters very often if they value their skins.

It was, as Mr. Rose promised, a little story, hardly more than an anecdote, and very well suited to half an hour on television. The Harris production, completely in harmony with the littleness of the story, was one of extreme intimacy with small telling close-ups of hands and faces and cards and money—the television equivalent of the sharp, significant phrase in a short story. It also contained a vivid performance by a remarkably powerful actor named Mervyn Vye.

I'm afraid Mr. Rose and I disagree about the nature of table stakes poker, though. It is my understanding—and I even consulted that noted authority, John Lardner, on the subject—that a player cannot be forced out of a pot when his money runs out. He should, the way I play table stakes poker, have an equity in the pot up to the point where he covers the money. I hope these small misunderstandings don't creep into the Rose column. I'd hate to think of that Japanese out in Kobe getting into a table stakes poker game with the understanding that he can steal a pot simply by being richer than his opponent. The G.I.'s would never let him out alive.

MR. ROSE appears both at the beginning of his little stories and at the end, seated at a table at Lindy's. (I rather wish he'd pick another spot. Lindy's belongs pretty thoroughly to the late Damon Runyon.) Anyhow, the tale this week (A.B.C.-TV 9 p. m.) will be The Night Billy Rose Should Have Stood In Bed with Burgess Meredith, whom Mr. Rose described as "the classiest bit of actor on Broadway". That's as good a sample as any of the Rose style.

One last note concerning another of Mr. Rose's far-flung activities. The Canary Pet Show, a 15-minute program of songs warbled by the Master Radio Canaries, returned to WOR for its 15th season yesterday.

One of the songs they warbled on the opening program was I Wanna Be Loved which was written by Mr. Rose and contains one of the most passionate lyrics to be heard on the local jukeboxes. Frankly, Mr. R., I don't think that lyric—("I wanna be loved to desperation . . .")—is a fit thing for decent canaries to be singing. I'm going to complain to the A. S. P. C. A.

Thompson Appointed To N.A.M. Committee

M. W. Thompson, treasurer and general manager of the Hall China Co., has been named to a nation-wide committee of top-ranking industrial executives dedicated to active participation in civic programs to advance community interest.

Known as the National Association of Manufacturers' Committee on Co-Operation with Community Leaders, the group works closely with educators, clergymen, youth leaders and other citizens in encouraging "a more alert citizenship and keener sense of civic responsibility". Mr. Thompson was appointed by Claude A. Putnam of New York City, NAM president.

He said the committee is interested especially in "improving school systems and assuring that they are effective instruments of democracy". The committee has been active about 12 years, seeking to provide leadership at the local level that will prevent community problems from growing into national problems.

South Koreans Are 'Bobo', 'Casey' In Buddy System

TOKYO, Oct. 10 (AP) — Bobo, Moe, Casey and Alabam are doing all right for themselves under the U. S. Army's buddy system in the Korean fighting.

They are four of thousands of South Korean volunteers who have been integrated into American army units.

Names were perhaps the biggest stumbling block when the program began last July. Veteran American sergeants found their South Korean units overflowing with Kims and Lees—the Smiths and Joneses of Korea.

A paint brush and a little imagination cleared up the situation in a hurry. On each South Korean's helmet was painted an official nickname assigned by his American buddy.

The system was introduced in the U. S. Seventh Infantry Division, where South Koreans first were integrated into the American army.

As soon as each Korean completes his brief basic training, he is assigned to a squad and to a specific buddy. He stays with the doughboy, copying his every move.

The Americans no longer call them "Gooks". The South Koreans are referred to as "Roks", adopted from the abbreviation for the Republic of Korea.

One U. S. sergeant explained the change this way:

"How can you call a guy a foreigner when he's shared your foxhole, split your shift on guard, and helped you fight off a night attack?"

Glass Workers Get Raise

CINCINNATI, Oct. 10 — A new agreement, increasing the base pay of 18,500 glass workers by 10 cents an hour, was signed here yesterday by the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co., Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass Co., and the C.I.O. Federation of Glass, Ceramic and Silica Sand Workers of America.

11 Million Buys Don Lee Chain

West Coast Network Sold To Four Firms

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 10 (AP) —A high bid of $11,200,000 for the Don Lee radio and television network was accepted yesterday by Public Administrator Ben Brown.

It is subject to approval in Probate Court.

The bid was submitted by four firms—the oil interests of Edwin W. Pauley, the Hoffman Radio Corp., Blythe & Co., New York investment firm, and WOR, New York City radio station and outlet for the Mutual Broadcasting Co.

Mr. Brown did not disclose the amount of the only other bid for the Lee network, submitted by the First National Bank of Akron, O., trustee for the retirement plans of General Tire & Rubber Co. employes.

The bid raises the value of the estate of Thomas S. Lee, who plunged to his death from an office building here last January, to nearly $13,000,000. Earlier it had been put at about $9,000,000. But a Cadillac Motors bid of $1,600,000 for the Lee automobile agency was accepted last month.

Lee was the son of Don Lee, who founded the auto and radio fortune before his death in 1934. For sale by the public administrator were 5,750 shares of stock in the radio enterprise, which includes radio station KHJ, Los Angeles, KFRC, San Francisco, KGD, Santa Barbara, TV station KTSL, Los Angeles, and contracts with 41 other West Coast stations.

The public administrator is handling the case because the younger Lee named an out-of-state beneficiary, an uncle, Dwight Merrill, Seattle lumberman, as sole heir, to divide "as he sees fit". Other relatives are suing for a portion of the estate.

Potters Tackle Lehman At Canton Friday In League Battle

Army Voted To No. 1 Post

Notre Dame's Fall Throws Battle For National Grid Honors Wide Open

NEW YORK, Oct 10 (AP)—The midwest s post-war stranglehold was broken today and a wide-open battle shaped up for national college football honors

Four-time champion Notre Dame plummeted to 10th place in the weekly Associated Press poll while Army took over as the No 1 team in the country

The midlands which have furnished the mythical titleholder nine of the 15 times since 1936 and continuously since the last war, were out of contention

Their best showing in the top 10 was No 9 held down by the Purdue team that splintered Notre Dame s reign with a 28-14 victory last Saturday at South Bend

The stoutest challenge to Army s position came from the southwest, which put three unbeaten titans — Southern Methodist, Oklahoma and Texas—on the Cadets' heels

Here s the latest rundown of gridiron might with every section represented

Army SMU, Oklahoma Texas, Kentucky, Stanford California, Maryland, Purdue and Notre Dame

Army, recognized national champion in 1945, will risk its newly-gained height in New York s Yankee Stadium Saturday against Michigan co-champion of the Big Ten and tops in the nation in 1948

The standings are bound to get another good shaking as the result of the big double-header show in Dallas

Oklahoma No 3, and Texas, No 4, collide in a Saturday afternoon game in the Cotton Bowl, while SMU, No 2 entertains unbeaten but once-tied Oklahoma A&M there that night

The rest of the top 10 plays lower level opponents, like this

Kentucky vs Cincinnati Stanford vs Santa Clara California vs Southern California Maryland vs Georgetown Purdue vs Miami (Fla), Notre Dame vs Tulane

The top teams (first place votes in parentheses)

W.Va. Squad Slashed To 30 By Injuries

MORGANTOWN W Va, Oct 10 (AP)—Only 30 men on West Virginia University s black and blue football squad were in sound enough shape today to be counted on for gridiron duty

The rest were hurting with a variety of injuries and ailments And only four days off is Saturday s Southern Conference tussle here with the University of Richmond

Mountaineer Coach Art Lewis was just as glad it rained yesterday He wanted to give his charges a chance to get over some of the bruises and sprains they brought back from last Friday night s defeat by George Washington U

Their drill yesterday was limited to five laps around the track and a squad meeting Taking part were two backs just off the ailing list and due to go back into action against Richmond

They were Fullback Johnny Murphy, hospitalized after suffering a nervous convulsion against Washington and Lee two weeks ago, and Halfback Walter Glenn, sidelined since pre-season practice with a knee injury

Due to arrive here on a stretcher today was Quarterback Dick Loring, through for the season with a broken leg suffered in the George Washington game He has been in a Washington hospital

'Cover Boy', '49 Flop, Now Vandy's Star

NASHVILLE Tenn, Oct 10 (AP)—Remember "cover boy' Bill Wade, the football flop of 49'

The young Vanderbilt quarterback is doing all right in '50, thank you

A national magazine picked Wade as its preseason sophomore standout last year Handsome Bill all dressed up in his football suit was featured on its front cover flanked by a couple of adoring coeds

Bill who at that writing had never played a lick of varsity football, failed to live up to advance billing And Vanderbilt, a pre-season pick as one of the nation s top elevens, failed miserably with a 5-5 record

So far this season it s been a different story, with Bill Wade s pitching accounting largely for the difference

Coach Bill Edwards' Vanderbilt Warriors won their first two games from little Middle Tennessee State and floundering Auburn by whopping scores—47-0 and 41-0

Last week end the Commodores flew down to Mobile, Ala , a 13-point underdog against the University of Alabama They upset the Crimson Tide, 27-22

In these three games Wade heaved 10 touchdown passes The national collegiate seasonal record is 22 With eight games to go, Wade appears to have a good chance to equal or better that mark

His record to date'

Games 3, attempted, 53 completed, 32, had intercepted, 1, yards, 726, touchdowns, 10

Barberton Heads For Top Of Grid Heap

By FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, O, Oct 10 (AP) —Coach Jumie Farrell's Barberton Magics, Ohio s 1947 high school grid champs, are heading for the heights again

The Summit county sensations picked as the season's Cinderella team Friday, shooting down Alliance s high-flying aviators, 20-0, to zoom in to third place in the 'top 10' selected by the state s newspaper and radio sports editors

Mel Knowlton s Aviators may have been looking ahead to this week s all-important clash with Massillon's 1948-49 state champs and currently the No 1 team in the poll No matter what the reason, they couldn't cope with the gridiron ledgerdemain of the Magics who handed them their first whitewashing since the 1946 loss to Canton McKinley, 34-0

Alliance had shoved aside three previous foes, including Mansfield s 1949 runner-up Tygers, before losing to the unbeaten and untied Barberton powerhouse

The Alliance loss wasn't the only unusual result over the week end Other eye-catchers were Cincinnati Western Hills' 25-6 victory over Cincinnati Purcell, first loss for that team since 1948, Hamilton's rousing 59-0 runaway over Martins Ferry, Circleville's 89-0 romp over Hillsboro (the second and third stringers scored nine touchdowns), and Springfield's 28-12 decision over Middletown

Massillon clung to the top spot with a 35-12 win over previously unbeaten Steubenville, which scored on the Tigers for the first time this year, while Canton McKinley took second place with a 32-0 victory over Canton Lincoln

The Big Ten has 13 members this week because of a 10th-place tie between New Philadelphia, Campbell Memorial, Lima Central and Louisville.

State's Top Ten

COLUMBUS, Oct 10—Here s how Ohio s sports editors and broadcasters rate the state's high school football teams after last week's games (10 points for first, 9 for second, 8 for third etc)

Teams	Points
Massillon	196
Canton McKinley	171
Barberton	161
Hamilton	118
Springfield	93
Findlay	60
Alliance	51
Sandusky	39
Circleville	18
New Philadelphia	17
Campbell Memorial	17
Lima Central	17

In Toronto Mat Show

TORONTO, Oct 10 — The Toronto Sportsman's Club will present an all-star wrestling show at Toronto High School Gym Saturday night with Primo Carnera, former world s heavyweight boxing champion, and Mike Paidousis local ex-Big Red and University of Tennessee football star making their wrestling debut in the Ohio valley

Henrich, Gordon, Nicholson May Have Played Last Games

NEW YORK, Oct 10 (UP)—Chances are that several former star ballplayers—like Tommy Henrich, Joe Gordon, and Bill Nicholson—played their last major-league game during 1950

Only one thing apparently stands today between these and other tottering oldsters and the minor leagues or retirement—and that is selective service If the military draft is expanded to take many of the young players, clubs will keep the old-timers around for one more turn on stage

But, barring that, the end of the trail is in sight for many men who used to make the headlines

Henrich the New York Yankees Old Reliable' first baseman— outfielder had to be left out of the World Series altogether because of his bad right knee Thirty-four year old Tommy is considering an operation but doctors said the surgery would have only a 50-50 chance of returning him to action

Gordon, 35-year-old Cleveland Indians second baseman has slowed down and was benched during late season in favor of young Bob Avila

Nicholson 34-year-old Philadelphia outfielder with the swish swing, is hospitalized with diabetes and the word is that he had played his last game

Ankle injuries have put Boston Brave stars Walker Cooper and Pete Reiser on the list of doubtful returnees Cooper, 35-year-old catcher, had a fine season with a 313 batting average but then fractured an ankle Reiser, 1941 National League batting champ, had an average of 205 in 52 games and twisted an ankle in the last week of the season Mickey Heafner, 38-year-old hurler picked up by the Braves late in the campaign, also is doubtful

Johnny Vander Meer, Chicago Cubs' hurler of double no-hit fame, won three and lost four this year and may be washed up at 35

Dutch Leonard 40, won five and lost one but may be through along with 34-year-old cub Catcher Mickey Owen, 343 batting average, may be sidelines for a youngster

SPORTS ROUNDUP
by Hugh S. Fullerton, jr.

NEW YORK Oct 10 (AP)—Ray Malavasi regarded by Army coaches as their best lineman, may not play at all this season . . The knee he hurt in the Boston U scrimmage last spring and reinjured on a diving board during the summer began to balloon again the other day when he flexed it too much Maybe the Yankees aren t interested in Ferris Fain, the A s first baseman, but Casey Stengel spent at least 10 minutes the other day raving about Fain s fielding When the football Giants were licking the Cleveland Browns last week, the thing burning a hole on Paul Brown s pocket was a letter from a fan who said he wouldn t attend another Brown game until some "real competition' was offered Jim Burchard of the New York World-Telegram and Sun suggests nicknaming Howie Odell Digger' after the radio grave excavator

Howie's Washington team really has been burying the opposition

Pappy Wasn't Happy

After Washington and Lee's footballers had handed West Virginia a 26-7 licking, Art (Pappy) Lewis, the West Virginia coach went to a Lynchburg (Va) hospital to visit his injured fullback, John Murphy . Athletic Director Legs Hawley a fast-moving guy, and other athletic staff members already had been there . Lewis asked if he could see Murphy and got this reply Yes, you may see him The coach already has been here" . . Murphy's doctor grinned and told Art "West Virginia sure works fast in getting a new coach '

Shorts And Shells.

Don Coleman Michigan State's fine tackle, reported 'overweight" at 184 pounds this fall He played at 174 last season and is five pounds heavier now that he s in shape again . . And Tom Gelderman, Marquette center, is an active member of the Chicago Board of Trade . . Sometimes umpires do admit they 'blow" a decision In television interview during the 1950 World Series, Harry Geisel, former American League ump, admitted that he called one wrong during the 1920 series . . while Buster Sheary, Holy Cross basketball coach, is tutoring Gis in Germany, assistant Bobby Curran is getting the Crusaders ready to open the season.

Cleaning The Cuff

Unusual sight at the World Series was tall Johnny Bulla, the golf pro, snapping pictures of the ball players in batting practice . . . Michigan alumni took 30,000 tickets for the Army game at Yankee Stadium this Saturday and the Big Ten alumni group took 10,000 more After Lee Oma fought Bob Satterfield in Buffalo recently, he came into the dressing room and asked Trainer Teddy Bentham, 'how much money have you got?" . . Teddy counted what was in his pockets and found 17 cents . . . Let me have it ' said Lee Let it never be said that Lee Oma fought for nothing '

OSU Coach Sees Indiana As Tough Foe

By FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, O, Oct 10 (AP) —Ohio State resurgent Bucks looked forward today to a tough game Saturday with Indiana s Hoosiers at Bloomington

Coach Wesley Fesler of the Rose Bowl champs said his squad came out of the 41-7 rout of Pittsburgh without serious injury

The Buck coaches expect a more determined foe this week the Hoosiers having turned in a startling 20-7 upset over favored Iowa in last Saturday s outing despite chalking up only seven first downs to Iowa s 18

Fesler said he planned only one lineup change this week a shift which might send Bob Koepnick of Dayton into the starting fullback spot

"We re going to use Koepnick with the better boys this week Fesler said to see what he can do We know he can run like a halfback when he gets through the line but it s a question whether he has the boom to hit a big forward wall effectively We d like to have him in there because of his speed '

Fesler was loud in his praise of his defensive corps, especially Tackle Bob Momsen of Toledo and End Dick Walther of Dayton The Buck mentor said Walther s performance had won him the berth as first replacement for Tom Watson Jim Hietikko of Conneaut is due to see plenty of defensive work at left tackle after his fine play

Fesler said Pittsburgh had set up a defense to stop Ohio s running, which left the passing game wide open

'We told our boys after the first five minutes, to run just enough to keep the Pitt defense in tight and to pass for yardage It paid off We could have hit receivers in the flat all day long '

Sophomore Lou D'Achille, who passed Indiana to victory over Iowa, is looked upon as the big threat for the Hoosiers The Bucks are still uncertain about their aerial defense, after SMU scored four times through the air and Pittsburgh once

Pro Grid Fans Duped By Chicago 'Sharpies'

CHICAGO, Oct. 10 (AP) — A hundred late comers to the Chicago Bears-Cardinals professional football game at Wrigley Field Sunday thought they got a break—sidewalk parking for $1.

It was raining and nearby car parking lots were filled. But a couple of street hawkers told them it was okay to park on driveways, in alleys and on sidewalks for $1.

"Everything is taken care of," the hawkers assured them.

When they returned to their cars, the hawkers had vanished and each had a ticket for illegal parking. The automatic fine for this is $3.

Police said "sharpies" duped the motorists.

SECTION 5. The Police Department shall take the fingerprints of each taxicab driver or taxicab operator before any license shall be issued to operate or drive a taxicab.

SECTION 6.
